

My Helping Hand

Five grown ups I can talk to about anything are:

(draw a picture or write their names inside the hand).

Name _____

My Helping Hand is an activity that will help children identify a support system that they can use if they need help, such as parents or guardians, family members, teachers. They should be adults they trust and who listen to them.