Children's Events and Activities

February to December 2020

It's never too early to introduce your child to the magic of language and literature through storytimes at your library

Sessions are tailored to suit different age groups and include stories, songs and lots of fun.

Please note
Toddler Storytimes, Preschool Storytimes and Baby Rhyme Times do not run during school holidays.

Bayside Library Service offers holiday activities that are conducted at all branches, the program is available a few weeks prior to the activity. Bookings are usually required.

Baby Rhyme Time

0 to 18 months
10.30am to 10.50am (except Beaumaris)
From February to December 2020

Baby Rhyme Time is held regularly at each branch and introduces your child to language, literature and the library. By exposing your child to a wide variety of the best books available and making reading an everyday part of life, you will lay the foundations for a lifelong love of reading.
